Municipal Counselling Centers for parents, children, and adolescents

Angebote der Jugendhilfe

Family life is joyous and wonderful,
varied and challenging ...
But sometimes it can be burdensome, unsettling,
and raise questions ...

You can turn to us...

- with all questions about parenting and relationships within the family,
- if you are worried about the development of children and adolescents,
- if there are tensions and problems between parents and within the family,
- about problems with partner conflicts, separation, divorce,
- with questions on parental care and interactions,
- with school problems.

It doesn't matter whether you are a single parent, married, or living with a new partner.

Adolescents and young adults can also contact us directly.

We will stand by you during difficult times ...

Information and Counselling, Diagnostics and Therapy

- for parents, families, children, adolescents, and young adults
- in individual or family sessions
- in crisis situations and with finding further suitable assistance

Prevention

- cooperation with other institutions and services
- professional advice on child protection and other issues
- parents' evenings and information events

Elternbriefe

- The parent letters are sent regularly to all parents in Munich.
- The parent letters support you in your everyday interactions with your children and provide tips for appropriate child rearing.
- They are sent to your home by post or e-mail free of charge.
- Also available in bilingual versions German – Turkish, German – Serbian, and German – Croatian

The municipal sponsor "Youth Services Programs" of the City Child and Youth Services Department is present around the city at 55 locations with its mobile youth services programs: School vacation programs/family pass, school social services/JAS (Jugendsozialarbeit an Schulen, Youth Social work at the Schools), OGS (Offene Ganztagschule, Open All-day School), social educational all-day guidance, JADE (Jugendliche an die Hand nehmen und begleiten, Taking adolescents by the hand and guiding them), mobile parenting support, street work and child, youth, and parenting counselling, parent letters/ parent information.

We are a team of professionals with a wide range of therapeutic qualifications in the fields of psychology, social education, and child and youth psychiatry.

Our programs

- are open to everyone, regardless of their origin and nationality, and
- regardless of political, philosophical, sexual, and religious orientation.

Our services are:

Confidential • Voluntary • Free of Charge
